

Spring Lane Building

After £13.8million investment, the Spring Lane Building recently opened its doors to delegates. The inspiring building provides modern meeting spaces, including a 350 seat lecture theatre, 26 seminar rooms, and versatile meeting areas. The new facility offers state of the art audio-visual opportunities and comes with an expert technical support team, as well as dedicated conference coordinators. Situated in the centre of the University of York Campus West, the Spring Lane Building is easily accessible by public transport and is a short walk from the city centre.
